TONIGHT'S MATCH NOTES

ANCHORS AWAY

Good evening ladies and gentlemen and welcome to The Murray Center where RIC will face off tonight against the Golden Bears from Western New England College.

THE WEEK IN REVIEW

Rhode Island College competed at the Brandeis Invitational on Sept. 11-12. After opening with a pair of, 3-0, losses to the hosts and Williams, the Anchorwomen bounced back with shutout wins over Gordon and Wentworth. Senior outside hitter SHARON CORRIVEAU was named to the All-Tournament Team, totaling 18 kills, five assists, five service aces, 25 digs and seven blocks in 12 games. Freshman outside hitter BREANNA BOYER led RIC over five matches last week, posting 33 kills and 35 digs.

THE GOLDEN BEARS AT A GLANCE

WNEC comes into tonight's contest riding a five-game winning streak. They stand at 6-3 overall. Head Coach KAIT KOZAK'S team won the WNEC Invitational on Sept. 11-12, defeating Westfield State (3-1), Bay Path (3-0), Newbury (3-0) and Western Connecticut (3-2). Junior setter KATHARINA BOES was the Tournament MVP, while senior outside hitter RACHEL CERVONE earned a spot on the All-Tournament Team.

LAST TIME WE MET

The Golden Bears swept the Anchorwomen, 3-0 (25-19, 25-19, 25-22), in Springfield, MA on Sept. 16, 2008. Cervone posted a match-high 13 kills to go along with 12 digs, while Boes contributed a match-high 29 assists for WNEC. For the Anchorwomen, ERIN ST. JACQUES led the way with nine kills, while Corriveau chipped in with five kills and 13 digs.
